

BOARD MEMBER

AMJAD MALIK

Brother Amjad Malik has been serving the Sacramento community for the past 17 years. He has two sons and a lovely wife, Shahida Malik. He was born in Pakistan and has traveled to over 67 different countries. He holds a BS in Statistics and Economics from Islamia College, Lahore. Amjad lived in Sweden for 25 years before he moved to Sacramento. One of his passions is creating Islamic Glass Art. He also likes to travel and play tennis. He was elected as a member in the board of trustees for Salam in 2015. He has plans to enhance security in the mosque, get more youth involved and help to unite the community.

