

VICE-CHAIR

DR. ANNE KJEMTRUP

Dr. Anne Kjemtrup is honored to be the current chairperson of the SALAM Board of Trustees and has served in this capacity for the past year. Previously as a member of the SALAM Board, Dr. Kjemtrup has served as secretary, parliamentarian and vice-chairperson. Active in SALAM for over 15 years, Dr. Kjemtrup has organized activities from Girl Scouts to major milestone events at SALAM and served on the Library Committee. Dr. Kjemtrup is proud of her Muslim faith and of SALAM for building an American Islamic Center where women's contributions are valued and encouraged. Professionally, Dr. Kjemtrup is a veterinarian and holds a Ph.D. in epidemiology. She is married to Kamal Lemseffer for 26 years and they have two children, Mohamed Nassim age 21 and Aisha, age 12, both of whom are proud of their Islamic identity cultivated at SALAM